

GIRLINKY

An improbable biography:

The riot-pop quadrilateral that is team GIRLINKY have been uniting their powers for the forces of good since 2001. Raised in disparate locations across the globe, it is a baffling coincidence that they ever met, let alone conversed in the same language of infectious good-time analogue pop.

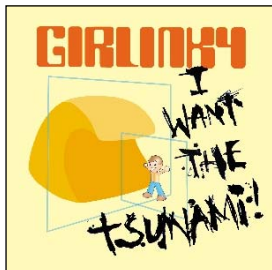

Team GIRLINKY:

Unfeasibly loud percussion pummeller Girlinky ROB often sings and likes to eat, while contemplating the significance of his Canadian origins.

Giant robot enthusiast and token English person Girlinky CHRIS provides reckless guitar assaults and occasional vocal pronouncements.

New Zealand born synth-noodler, turbulent guitarist and peerless harmoniser Girlinky SARAH can despatch an unwary foe with one withering stare.

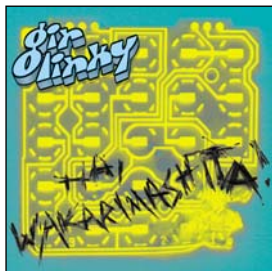

Whiskey-fuelled bass protagonist and keen crooner Girlinky SCOTT is prone to contrariness and ranting in a barely comprehensible Scots accent.

Official product:

It's The Sugar Rush is the very latest Girlinky punch-the-air spectacular, launched on 7th March 2005 and featuring three brand new songs. Girlinky have previously released three singles: My Huge Head (2001); Hai Wakarimashita! (2002); and Newspaper Round (2004); and a debut album, I Want The Tsunami! (2003). All Girlinky releases appear on their own Dedear Records and through Shellshock distribution.

I want more:

Girlinky appear live regularly in and around London. Check in to www.girlinky.com for news, MP3s, videos, games, photos and rantings.

Management:

Jon White
Step2Management Europe Ltd
Tel: 020 8400 7540
Email: jon@step2management.co.uk
Address: 81 Haliburton Road, Twickenham, Middlesex TW1 1PD

Un-sponsored endorsements:

"Classy Super-Pop! with a capital ! That fizzes like a mouthful of salted cola bottles." - Careless Talk Costs Lives

"Wry, witty highly entertaining pop that grows with each new airing" - Penny Black

"Tunes that could crack a smile on even the coolest electro-nerd's face." - Bang

"Done with intelligence, passionate ambition, and no little sense of style" - PlayLouder

"Frenzied pop packaged with deliciously frenetic chorus lines, quick driving scatter fire dynamics & feel good harmonies" - Losing Today

"Deconstructing the pop rock mainframe and putting it back together with the aid of whisky, Syd Barret and a second hand record shop." - Unpeeled